

Since our last newsletter in May church work in Malawi has been continuing apace.

There was a conference at the end of May attended by 32 leaders from most of the congregations.(above)

In June there was a conference for women held at Chabwanda in the Dedza area. The village chief was very happy to attend and ladies gave testimonies of being touched by God. (2 pictures above)

During July training was undertaken in the Lilongwe area to help leaders to use the new Rooted in Jesus material. This is a discipleship course prepared by The Mathetes Trust and has been used in over ninety dioceses, denominations and theological colleges in Africa. (3 pictures above)

You may remember baby Chisomo (Biliat's niece) whose mother died. SaltMalawi have been supporting her by paying for milk supplies.

In Kasungu Joseph has recently been reaching out to disabled people in the community. (right). SaltMalawi have provided funds to help complete Joseph's house (above) which is used as a pastoral centre....

.... as well as the church building and training centre at Nthondo in Nsanje district led by Aaron.(above)

In August 300 bags of maize were bought to distribute to churches to help the most needy during the coming hunger season, following last year's famine.

In September three leaders went to encourage the small church at Kaphira which had been struggling. The leader, Amos, is seen holding the child.

In October John's 21 year old son Dan was riding a motorbike in the dark (picking up Gift from school who was a pillion passenger) when they hit an ox cart with sufficient force to kill one of the cows. Gift was thrown clear (thankfully uninjured) but Dan was taken to hospital unable to move and John thought he was dying. The local village churches gathered around John and Betha in prayer and when the report came back to the UK the SaltMalawi prayer network was alerted. They prayed with an emphasis on spiritual warfare and in 3 or 4 days Dan was out of hospital and back to normal. John says, "I have seen the hand of the Lord at work through your prayers – Dan is completely healed, nothing left of his injuries! Able to walk, able to speak! I have seen a miracle! Today, from complete immobility, Dan has now gone to see his friend. Lots of Scriptures were given to us. Thank you so much. Please share with all our brothers and sisters over there (UK)"

Julian and Caroline remain intimately engaged in supporting the work even though the pandemic has blocked their anticipated trips for the year (expecting to spend 3 or 4 months in Malawi in 2020). Perhaps next year? In the meantime they are giving their time in disciple making at home and exploring what paths the Lord has for them whilst in the UK. They give thanks for and welcome your continuing prayer support.
